Laborers, $0.25. Reater boys, common laborers

The decision follows in principl

The decision follows in principle the award in the Delaware and Phil-adelphia districts, which gave labor important concessions for which the working men have been lighting for The board's decision prohibits an discrimination between union and non-union men in a clause which re-flected the gravity of the shipping "Relieving that in this national emergency past differences between employers and employes much be for-employers and employes much be for-employers and employes must be for-rotten in the common determination to produce the maximum possible number of ships," the award said, "the heard will not tolerate any dis-crimination on the part of employers or employes between union and non-minar man." In granting a basic eight-hour day, the board undertook to encourage the institution of two and three shifts by limiting overtime so that the total work shall not exceed 60 hours a week. Excessive overtime was declared to lead to inefficiency and to lessen rather than increase production.
